Y or N

- Have you reconciled your business bank account(s) to make sure your income and expense summaries agree with bank activity?
 - Did you deposit all business income into your business account(s) for 2022? If no, where else did you deposit the business income and what was the total amount? _____
 - If you claim automobile or vehicle expenses, did you keep a business mileage log (for business vehicles or personal vehicles used for business) for 2022 or can you create a log to support the total number of business miles driven in 2022?
 - If you pay health insurance for yourself and employees (if applicable): Please separate health insurance for yourself vs health insurance for employees? Don't include co-pays.
 - Do you have receipts &/or documentation to support all the 2022 business expenses claimed on your summary?
 - For those who provided services to your business during 2022, did you pay anyone not incorporated $600 or more during 2022? If yes, were 1099's prepared & filed with the IRS?
 - Did the business purchase any equipment, furniture, fixtures, or vehicles during 2022? If so, please provide a copy of the purchase receipt or provide us with a description, date & amount of each item.
 - Did the business repay any loans/acquire a new loan during 2022? If so, what interest was paid on the loan(s) during 2022? Please provide a list of the principal balance due of all loans at 12/31/2022.
 - Did you deposit any gifts, inheritances, insurance proceeds, nontaxable income, or personal deposits into your business account during 2022? If so, provide the details and make sure you do not include those personal deposits in your 2022 business income.
 - (For S Corporations ONLY): Did you take a salary for 2022 and report those wages on a 2022 W-2? If not, we need to discuss this after April 15th for 2023.
-  (For Sole proprietors ONLY): Do not claim an expense for "wages or salary" paid to yourself or spouse unless your spouse received a W-2 form from your business.

If you were not using QuickBooks, please summarize your business income received in 2022 and separate and summarize the expenses paid by cash or check during 2022. You should include credit card purchases prior to 12/31/22 in your expenses even though they were not paid for as of 12/31/22.

If you do not use QuickBooks, balance in all business bank accounts on 12/31/22: $_____.

MEMO – If you do not have a separate business bank account, it is advisable to setup one for 2023.

For new clients only, (when applicable) please email us a pdf copy of your 2021 business Federal and State(s) returns with a detailed depreciation schedule to: info@mrcpa.net
